Amarante

Open air and other pleasures.

The town of Amarante is very close, famous for its traditions associated to the cult of its patron saint – S. Gonçalo –, for its regional pastries, its main church and the ancient Dominican convent, nowadays converted into an art museum, and also for the different personalities of the Portuguese culture that were born here. To complete the experience in the lands of Vinho Verde, lunch is served at the Restaurant of Casa da Calçada Hotel or at a typical restaurant in town.
